Mortgage Product Design and Portfolio Management Seminar

“Building viable and sustainable housing finance operations across the value chain and to all income segments in Africa”

The African Union for Housing Finance (AUHF) in partnership with the Centre for Affordable Housing Finance in Africa (CAHF) and the International Finance Corporation (IFC) and in collaboration with Making Finance Work for Africa (MFW4A) presents a 2 and half days' workshop and site visit in

Abidjan, Côte d'Ivoire:

African Development Bank – CCIA Building

5 – 7 February 2018

The objective of the course is to provide participants with models and tools to assess the challenges for affordable housing programs and to evaluate solutions under the criteria of effectiveness and efficiency. Participants will be exposed to strategic design tools to develop and implement demand oriented mortgage loan products or improve existing mortgage product offerings. The course also provides methodologies on how to lend to clients with informal incomes. Accompanying group exercises and case studies will focus on the current situation in Sub-Saharan Africa. Lessons and experiences also cover financial institutions from India which have developed concepts on how to lend to the affordable segment (borrowers with stable incomes, mostly informal);

- Goal of Day 1 – Analysing situation of a given mortgage market in Africa and learn from other countries.
- Goal of Day 2 – Discuss solutions for implementation of mortgage loan products in Africa taking into consideration lessons learnt from other countries. Case studies on underwriting and servicing practices of lenders from India

The workshop will be free for all paid up AUHF members and 358 US Dollars (excluding additional costs), or 200 000 FCFA, for non-members. Space is limited to 30 participants.

WHO WE ARE:

International Finance Corporation (IFC)

The International Finance Corporation \(IFC\) was founded on a bold idea: that the private sector is essential to development. IFC provides more than money, given that it blends investment with advice to help the private sector find solutions to today's greatest development challenges.

IFC's three business – Investment Services, Advisory Services, and IFC Asset Management– are mutually reinforcing, delivering global expertise to clients in more than a 100 developing countries. IFC provides both immediate and long-term financing, and we combine it with advice that helps companies grow quickly and sustainably.

Through investments in property, IFC aims to promote development of affordable housing and essential urban infrastructure, incorporating the latest green building standards and technology.

The African Union for Housing Finance (AUHF)

AUHF is a member-based association of 61 mortgage banks, building societies, housing corporations and other organisations involved in the mobilisation of funds for shelter and housing on the African continent.

Vision: An enabled and productive housing finance sector across Africa where governments and the private sector work together to develop and maintain efficient and effective housing markets and access to adequate and affordable housing for all.

Mission: To support its members in realising their vision, through networking and deal facilitation, information collection and dissemination, lobbying and advocacy, and capacity building and training.

Centre for Affordable Housing Finance in Africa (CAHF)

CAHF is a not-for-profit company with a vision for an enabled affordable housing finance system in countries throughout Africa, where governments, business, and advocates work together to provide a wide range of housing options accessible to all. CAHF's mission is to make Africa's housing finance markets work, with special attention on access to housing finance for the poor. The overall goal of our work is to see an increase of investment in affordable housing and housing finance throughout Africa: more players and better products, with a specific focus on the poor.

Making Finance Work for Africa Partnership (MFW4A)

The Making Finance Work for Africa Partnership (MFW4A) was established by the then G8 in the 2007 Heiligendamm Declaration, in recognition of the fact that advancing financial sector development in Africa requires close collaboration between African governments, development partners, the private sector and other stakeholders. The Partnership was created as a platform for advocacy, knowledge sharing and joint initiatives to address African financial sector development priorities. MFW4A is hosted by the African Development Bank at its headquarters in Abidjan.
